Under C. F. Robertson Shrine
Increased Membership
Beyond 1,000.

Tulsa Shriner have the Christmas spirit. Not only have the members of the Akdar Shrine made arrangements to give benefit concerts and showers for the Salvation Army Christmas dinner, but members of the local shrine in an outburst of generosity voted appropriations at their last meeting for the Salvation Army, the anti-tuberculosis society, the humane society and the Y. W. C.

More than $500 is expected to be realized from the concerts for the Salvation Army this year, members of the shrine say. Last year the shrine musicians raised $300 which was turned over to the Salvation Army for the annual Christmas dinner to the poor of the city.

Following are the officers elected for 1920:

Samuel H. Dye, potentate; Harry H. McFarland, chief rabbi; H. B. Hantz, assistant rabbi; L. D. Wood, treasurer; high priest; and prophet; Harry Hantz, oriental guide; Grant H. McFarland, treasurer; Harry M. Welver, recorder.

At the meeting of the Imperial Shrine in Portland, Ore., in June, 1919, the following men will represent the local shrine: Arthur C. Farmer, Charles F. Robertson, Samuel H. Dye and A. D. Young.

Many compliments were paid at the meeting to the retiring potentate, Charles F. Robertson, under whose administration the local lodge has passed the 1,000 mark and has accumulated $1000.00 in the treasury.

ACCOUNTING IS DEMANDED.

Minority Stockholders of Oil Company Ask for Legal Relief.

Asking an accounting of funds received by the president and treasurer of the Maximo oil corporation, suit was filed in district court yesterday by E. M. Solow, Sidney Isaac, S. D. Rieder, Max Rier and others against the oil company and Philip Kline and Nat Wiseman, in which receivers of the oil company is asked.

The plaintiffs contend that as minority stockholders, they, with the defendants entered into an agreement whereby two oil leases were released to a second development company, and the defendant officers authorized to sell $30,000 worth of capital stock to pay for the development of property in 1915-16, (Simulke county). The petition asks the receiver and president with selling the stock but failing to turn the money into the company for the purpose for which it was intended.

HINTS FOR FIRE PREVENTION

Chief Alder Says Most of Recent Blazes Could Have Been Avoided.

A word to Tulsans as regards the prevention of fires is not untimely, in that fires have multiplied in the last few days of cold weather, says Chief H. C. Alder.

Defective fires are the chief source of trouble. Firemen say many conflagrations are the result of improper building of fires. Pipes, before entering the brick work of the fire, should have the proper insulation, that is, air vents of proper width should be incorporated in the building so the heat of the pipe will not come in contact with the wood. Cheap fire material is another source of fire. Insufficient thickness of slate or other nonconductor of heat material will not protect wood.

work of the building when a hot fire is raging.

"Builders in erecting homes and business houses should carefully take these fire prevention suggestions in hand, thus decreasing the record of fire and loss," continued Chief Alder.

An Open Letter to Parents

How About Your Boy or Your Girl?

Tulsa Business College, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

"I am very much interested in your college and would like very much to attend, but my father doesn't seem to care about my getting an education."

"I have completed the 'grade schools' and have gone to a country high school about three (3) months, but as the weather is getting worse, and have eight (8) miles to ride horseback, and my father will not pay twenty (20) dollars a month for board, must stop my school work, which I hate to do."

"Father is able to send me to school if he was only willing but he is not. It makes me very sad to think of the other boys and girls getting an education when I cannot receive an education myself."

"Father wanted my two older sisters and my brothers to complete school, but they cared more for other things than an education. I think some times I am not cared for as the older children of the family are."

"I would gladly go to school, which has always been my desire, but my parents will not permit, which they could if they would. I also think some one should look into the matter and try to get them to help me get an education."

I remain yours truly,"

The aforesaid is a verbatim copy of a letter received in our office during the past week. It reveals the uppermost desire of an ambitious young woman and indicates the indifference of the parents.

We are wondering if it can really be possible that any parent would intentionally refuse his son or daughter an education? We do not believe that the parents of this young lady really know her heart's desire or they would gladly assist her to a better education.

IS YOUR SON OR DAUGHTER INTERESTED IN A BUSINESS EDUCATION? Are you standing in his or her way of securing it?

HORACE MANN said, "If a father wishes to give his son a legacy better than houses, land, gold or silver, let him give him a practical business education."

Why not give your son or daughter a CHRISTMAS present long to be remembered? Give him or her a scholarship in the TULSA BUSINESS COLLEGE. Telephone 1429 or call at our office, 109-111 East Third street.
